

Canadian Law Library Review Student Article Award

About:

The CALL/ACBD award of $250 may be given annually to the student author of an article published in Canadian Law Library Review / Revue canadienne des bibliothèques de droit. To qualify for the award, the article must be:

- pertinent to both the interests and the information needs of the CALL/ACBD membership;
- relevant to law librarianship in Canada;
- excellent in content and style, as shown in its research and analysis, and its presentation and writing;
- not published elsewhere and preferably written specifically for the purpose of publication in Canadian Law Library Review / Revue canadienne des bibliothèques de droit, and
- written by a student.

The recipients of the award are chosen by the Editorial Board. One award may be given to each volume of Canadian Law Library Review / Revue canadienne des bibliothèques de droit. Award winners will be announced at the CALL/ACBD annual meeting and their names will be published in Canadian Law Library Review / Revue canadienne des bibliothèques de droit. Should the article be written by more than one author, the award will be given jointly.
